

Push My Button

Push My Button is a new project run by Just Chill for up to 12 young people ages between 11-16.

This project will enable isolated young people to socialise and experience cultural, artistic and environmental opportunities.

2 hour weekly sessions run at The Studio, Lacey Street, Widnes for 12 week per term (3 terms by year) will include a themed workshop by a local artists or expert, creative exploration of their personal issues, planning a sharing of this work and a cultural visit/trip of their choosing, they will plan and budget for the trip and vote on the suitable options available linked to the terms theme.

Alongside these sessions there will be one Rock 'N' Bowl café session per month, the participants will plan and budget for food on sale and book local performers of all ages to provide entertainment. There will also be an opportunity to perform themselves and create and distribute publicity.
