Do - Best Practice Model

Do

Class teacher remains responsible for the day to day teaching of the child/young person

Take learners receptive language into account, ensuring that they understand instructions for the task with appropriate questioning to enable success

Close liaison between all staff teaching the learner

Communication with home to celebrate success and reinforce learning

Ensure there are opportunities for consolidation and application of new skills

Provide feedback to learners highlighting successes and reinforcing next steps

Ensure questioning focuses on moving learning forward