

What Am I Feeling?

At times, it can be difficult to put your feelings into words. On the outline of the person below, add colour to help you show how you are feeling, e.g. if you have stomach ache, you could colour in the stomach or if you feel like crying, you could colour in the eyes.

The adult you are with might ask you some questions while you are colouring.

