OVERVIEW

- Understand the legal context of autism and exclusion
- Understand the risk of illegal exclusion and how to avoid it occurring
- Better understand the triggers and ways of managing distressed behaviours

WHO IS IT FOR?

Strongly advised for a member of staff from all schools to attend (Primary, Secondary and Special)

Headteachers/SEND/COs/ Behaviour Leads

WHAT YOU WILL LEARN

After completing this module delegates will be able to:

- Demonstrate better knowledge of what is expected of settings in terms of the rights of CYP and families in relation to exclusion
- See the exclusion experience through the eyes of the autistic CYP
- Consider how they can make reasonable adjustments to reduce the risk of exclusion occurring
- Understand how exclusion can significantly negatively impact an autistic child and young person's experiences and outcomes
- Recognise how the whole setting has a role to play in helping autistic pupils avoid exclusion
